All Saint's Day

In the light

*Saints of God,
windows of divine light, tell us about him.*

*You who have not found a date in our calendars but who have received from God an eternal place,
pray for us.*

*You humble labourers of the earth who have received the fruits of creation
pray for us.*

*You housekeepers, seamstresses and ironers
and ironers, cooks and nannies who, day after day, have sown tenderness,
pray for us.*

*You, monks and nuns of silence,
of prayer and fraternal life, who have kept the joy of God in your hearts,
pray for us.*

*You, scholars, philosophers and men of science, who have relentlessly pursued the truth and have discovered the mystery of God in it,
pray for us.*

*You artists and entertainers
Who have brought some of God's beauty and joy to our earth,
pray for us.*

All you Saints, blessed children of God lift up our praise to the Father, through the Son, in the Holy Spirit.
