

South London Refugee Association

Women's Group
Every Thursday!
10.30am-1:30pm

We are a group of excellent women & we want change!

Our Women's Group is a safe and empowering space for all women going through the immigration process. We value our members' different backgrounds, cultures, languages, knowledge, and skills. We welcome everyone to participate and share their skills & experiences.

Our sessions are about:

Connection with a wonderful, supportive community of women

Excellent childcare

Mental health peer support

Fun, creative projects e.g. gardening, storytelling, poetry, music...

Community activism around migrants' rights, intersectional feminism, campaigns in South London and much more!

When?

Every Thursday, 10.30am to 12.30pm

Free hot lunch 12.30pm to 1.30pm

Where?

The Woodlawns Centre, 16 Leigham Court Road,
London SW16 2PJ

How to get there?

Bus stop:

Streatham Hill Station

Train:

Streatham Hill Station

For further information, feel free to contact Tamara:

✉ Tamara@slr-a.org.uk

☎ 07907 708798

or call our office on 02034903443

SLRA

South London Refugee Association