 PRAYER
PRAYING DIFFERENTLY

All Saint's Day In the light

Saints of God, windows of divine light, tell us about him.

You who have not found a date in our calendars but who have received from God an eternal place, pray for us.

You humble labourers of the earth who have received the fruits of creation pray for us.

You housekeepers, seamstresses and ironers and ironers, cooks and nannies who, day after day, have sown tenderness, pray for us.

You, monks and nuns of silence, of prayer and fraternal life, who have kept the joy of God in your hearts, pray for us.

You, scholars, philosophers and men of science, who have relentlessly pursued the truth and have discovered the mystery of God in it, pray for us.

You artists and entertainers Who have brought some of God's beauty and joy to our earth, pray for us.

All you Saints,
blessed children of God lift up our praise to the Father,
through the Son, in the Holy Spirit.
